Cancellations by Sea Smart:

Sea Smart reserves the right to cancel programs under extreme weather circumstances and based on the judgment of our program educators and team. The health and safety of our participants, volunteers, and staff are our top priority. Weather conditions at the actual program locations may differ from forecasts, and decisions regarding program continuation or cancellation will be made based on staff observations of participant well-being.

By enrolling in a Sea Smart program, participants agree to abide by the terms and conditions, including the refund policy outlined above. Sea Smart may update or modify this refund policy at any time, with changes communicated to enrolled participants.
